

Photo by Mike Maple/The Commercial Appeal

Salute to fallen brethren

The Memphis fire and police departments commemorate the seventh anniversary of the Sept. 11, 2001, terror attacks Thursday at the Fire Museum in Downtown Memphis. Almost 3,000 people died that day, including 343 New York firefighters and 60 law enforcement officers. Residents across the Mid-South took part in ceremonies marking the occasion.